Volunteers Please

Would you like to edit this newspaper for a day or two? Perhaps you want to co-ordinate a trip using a minibus, or help to staff the conference office once or twice? Volunteer in the Conference Office please.

Minibuses

Minibus overlord is John J McDermott. If you or your family want to suggest an adventure later in the conference, John will try to arrange for a minibus and driver to be at your disposal. The more notice you give, the more likely it is that the arrangements can be made. Contact by leaving a message in the conference office.

Publishers

From Tuesday until Friday of week one there will be a mathematics book exhibition in the library foyer. At coffee time and tea time some of the refreshments will be served at the exhibition. refreshments will also be served in the usual place close to the entrance of the University (Plenary) hall. The exhibitors will be CUP, de Gruyter, OUP and Springer-Verlag.

Shopping shuttle

The Groups 1997 minibus service will be using the blue bus to operate a Sainsburys supermarket shuttle from the University bus stop to Sainsburys and back during 18:00 – 20:00 tonight. Another supermarket which can be reached quite easily using the number 18 bus service is Waitrose. Get off at the first stop after crossing Pulteney Bridge. Walk back parallel to the river, and enter the shopping complex on the other side of the road via a passage. Waitrose is in this complex.

Helpers

The conference owes a debt of gratitude to the students and staff of Bath University who did such heroic work on Saturday – sometimes in terrible weather – to usher people to their rooms. Some of them will be coming for a drink in the SCR bar at 18:00 tonight; perhaps you might like to join them.

Hospital Drama

Nico Caranti, son of Andrea and Nicoletta, was rushed to hospital yesterday after a nasty fall. He is now wearing a very impressive cast. Our agents inform us that Nico was very brave!

Kourovka Notebook

The Kourovka Notebook will be on sale at the conference. Details to follow.

Registration

Those people not properly registered, or needing to engage in financial transactions with the conference, please go to the Conference Office during 13:10 – 13:50 today. If there is still outstanding business, the registration desk will also open during the tea break in the same place.
